Featured Book

Desktop Guide to Complimentary and Alternative Medicine - really good book with useful CD. Discusses evidence for efficacy and side effects of various CAMs. Really helpful

Starting in General Practice in August?

If you are starting in General Practice in August and have not already done so you need to contact the Practice's practice manager to go and meet them (and of course your new trainer) so that you can fill in all the necessary forms to get on the PCT's performers list so that you can start seeing patients AND GET PAID!

CSA Pass Rate

The CSA pass rate at the latest diet of assessments was 85%. This is great news. Even better news is that all 16 doctors in Yorkshire who have taken nMRCGP and are due to finish at the end of July have passed. Well done.

Whole Day - MSK 17th June

The next Whole Day meeting is at Pontefract Medical Education Centre on 17th June - it is on MSK Problems in general practice. It is being facilitated by Dr Arthur Mone - GPwSI in MSK and Rugby League doctor.

GP trainee pay

The NHS has announced that the GP trainee supplement will be reduced from 55% to 50% for trainees signing new contracts in August.

Induction Day - Tuesday 12th August

Advanced notice that the Induction Day in August will be held at St Catherines Conference Centre, Doncaster Road, Wakefield from 9 pm - book that study leave NOW!

Care of the Acutely Ill in Primary Care

This two day course is essential preparation for OOH training looking at the organisation of OOH care and practising the skills necessary to provide that care - communication skills over the telephone, triage skills and decision making. The course takes place on the 2nd and 3rd July at Alwalton House Surgery, Drighlington . To book a place contact
